

Grand Isle SAC Limited

Grand Isle SAC Limited is a segregated accounts company (SAC) that is owned by AIG and domiciled in Bermuda. It offers a flexible solution for insureds seeking an alternative risk retention strategy. As a segregated accounts company, Grand Isle offers many of the benefits of a captive, including features that allow the insured to retain insurance risks and better manage the associated costs, without the full operating costs of a standalone captive.

Key Features and Benefits

- Quick formation of a segregated account (protected cell) with minimal start-up costs
- Access to AIG companies for fronting or reinsurance
- Less time and fewer meetings required from clients
- Enhanced management and control over losses
- Potential for sharing in underwriting and investment profits
- Assets and liabilities of each cell are legally segregated
- A cell can easily be converted to a standalone captive
- Available for virtually any line of business, including: general liability, professional liability, workers' compensation, property, warranty, and accident & health

Structure Overview

- Client signs a Participation Agreement defining its rights and obligations with respect to the cell
- Client posts collateral required to support the obligations of the cell
- Premiums and losses are ceded to the client's cell in Grand Isle SAC Limited
- All regulatory requirements and administrative tasks are managed and carried out by AIG's Captive Management Services

AIG is the marketing name for the worldwide property-casualty, life and retirement, and general insurance operations of American International Group, Inc. For additional information, please visit our website at www.aig.com. All products and services are written or provided by subsidiaries or affiliates of American International Group, Inc. Products or services may not be available in all countries and jurisdictions, and coverage is subject to underwriting requirements and actual policy language. Non-insurance products and services may be provided by independent third parties. Certain property-casualty coverages may be provided by a surplus lines insurer. Surplus lines insurers do not generally participate in state guaranty funds, and insureds are therefore not protected by such funds.
